

---

---

Vocab Set #2

— Test Wed 11/1 —

---

---

What's in this set...?

- general vocabulary words
- context words (from Outsiders)
- homonyms (None this week)

All vocab words (Big one this week!)

1. Philosopher

2. Philanthropist

3. Philologist

4. Bibliophile

5. Philter

6. Philharmonic

7. Nonchalantly

8. Madras

9. Rarity

10. Scowled

11. Shanghaing

12. Winced

13. Aloofness

14. Gallantly

15. Ornerly

Prefix Phil- (love)

1. Philosopher- noun. Someone who loves philosophy (study of knowledge/existence/wisdom)

-Aristotle is a famous philosopher.

2. Philanthropist- noun. A person who loves helping others, donating time and money to promote a cause.

-Stephen Ross is a wealthy philanthropist who donates a lot of money to U of Michigan education.

3. Philologist- noun. Someone who studies language in history

-The Constitution has been studied by a philologist for meaning.

4. Bibliophile- noun. A person who collects or has great love of books
-A bibliophile will likely have an extensive library at home.
5. Philter-noun. A drink supposed to arouse love or desire for the drinker. "A love potion".
-They poured another philter, hoping he would finally see his true love..."
6. Philharmonic- adj. Being devoted to and/or appreciating music.
-The philharmonic players studies classical jazz music.

Outsiders Words

7. Nonchalantly- adverb. To do something casually, or relaxed.
-She nonchalantly recited 20 places of pi.
8. Madras- noun. A strong cotton fabric. Usually with stripes or checkers.
-The madras shirt he wore was flashy.
9. Rarity- noun. The quality of something/someone being rare.
-It is a rarity to see antique cars on the road.

10. Scowled- verb. Frowning in an angry or upset way.

-She scowled at him when he lied.

11. Shanghaiing- to trick someone into a place or position or into doing something

-Brady shanghaied the dog into the car to go to the Vet.

12. Wincing- verb. To make a sound/movement anticipating or receiving pain or distress.

-Ponyboy wincing before the Socs attacked him.

13. Aloofness- adjective. Not being friendly. Being cool (cold) and distant.

-During negotiations, the lawyer was being aloof.

14. Gallantly- adverb. To do something bravely, impressive, or charmingly.

-Soldiers fight gallantly for their nation.

15. Ornery- adjective. Bad-tempered, stubborn, or combative.

-The Greasers are ornery after being stereotyped for so long.