

---

---

Vocab Set #7

— Today is Monday March 18 —
Test Date: Ths April 4th

---

---

Set #7

Pre-SAT words

1. Analogous
2. Callous
3. Delineate
4. Emulate
5. Platitude
6. Salutary
7. Relic
8. Wither

Latin Root Words "cog/sen/sci" (to know/knowledge) PART 1

9. Cognition
10. Cognizant
11. Conscience
12. Incognito
13. Omniscient
14. Unconscionable
15. Sciolist

1. Analogous- adj- to describe things that are similar to each other.
EX: I can not think of an analogous event similar to skydiving.
2. Callous- adj- selfish, not showing concern for someone else's suffering
EX: The poor servants were treated callously by the King.
3. Delineate- verb- to clearly show or describe something
EX: The directions should clearly delineate your task today.

4. Emulate- verb- an attempt to be like someone or something you admire

EX: She grew up emulating her skills to be like Mia Hamm.

5. Platitude- a statement that expresses something not new, repetitive

EX: The speech was filled with platitudes about studying for exams.

6. Salutory- adj- having a good or helpful result especially after something unpleasant has happened

EX: The accident should be a salutory lesson to be more careful.

7. Relic- noun- something that is from a past time, place, or culture.

EX: This law is a relic of a bygone era.

8. Wither- verb- to become weak, to crumble away

EX: The economy withered during the depression.

Latin Root Words "cog/sen/sci" (to know/knowledge)

9. Cognition- the mental process of knowing, learning

EX: Your attitude is influenced by your cognition of the task.

10. Cognizant-adj- to fully know, or completely be aware of something

EX: He is cognizant of his duties as a new boss.

11. Conscience- the source of knowing right from wrong

EX: Her conscience told her to return the lost wallet.

12. Incognito- adj- to describe something not meant to be known, or found.

EX: He travels incognito among the crowd in Italy.

13. Omniscient- having total knowledge, knowing absolutely everything

EX: The novel has an omniscient narrator.

14. Unconscionable- not being restrained or guided by your conscience, being unreasonable.

EX: Slavery could be considered unconscionable in today's age.

15. Sciolist- someone showing superficial, or fake knowledge of something. An amature pretending to know more.

EX: The tour guide was a sciolist and was telling false information on the tour.